

USDT (ERC20) USDT (TRC20)

A Tether Mixer, also known as a Tether Tumbler is an online service helping tether owners to regain privacy over there USDT

The most easy to buy cryptocurrencies with is Tether, is through a so-called "Exchange". Exchange would be used by Tether using their credit-card after verifying their identity. By providing this exchange with a official ID card.

The process described as a security feature, is actually a trick from the governments forcing these exchanges to collect and share those personal information with them.

Once that done and because the information has been used by Tether is public. Avoid having your ID left for sale to public your wallet and now have your choice to use your funds.

However, there is a legal way to purchase your crypto privacy. It's called a Tether USDT Mixer

How does tether mixer work?

Tether Mixer uses different wallets (crypto) and work in two ways.

They will use one of their liquidity pool to receive your USDT as input and output your crypto.

Then they will use another of their liquidity pool to provide you with other. Therefore, the value you will receive on your new wallet after that mixing process will not be related to your original transaction.
